Executive Juris Doctor

The EJD is a program pioneered by Concord to provide a law-based degree for those individuals who do not intend to become practicing attorneys. It is designed for individuals who are seeking an understanding of the U.S. legal system to enhance their current career, to open up employment opportunities, or for their personal growth. In addition to obtaining a thorough legal background, graduates will have sharpened their analytical reasoning and communication skills.

Nondegree-Seeking (NDS) Single Courses

In addition to its degree programs, Concord offers nondegree-seeking students and alumni the ability to take single courses (or groups of courses) that could help them build their knowledge and skills in specific areas. You can select one or more courses that provide industry-specific expertise to help you resolve disputes; become an advocate for patients, families, or other stakeholders; negotiate, draft, or review contracts; shape corporate or institutional policy; build knowledge to communicate better with attorneys; or otherwise advance within your organization.

If you do not already possess a JD from either Concord or another law school, you must receive the Dean's approval prior to enrolling in any NDS course. Your Admissions Advisor will assist in this process.

Upon successful completion of an NDS course, you may transfer the credits earned toward the EJD program.
