

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY REQUIREMENT

All Purdue Global students must demonstrate English proficiency (reading, writing, and speaking) appropriate to our academic environment and the level of study. Meeting the English proficiency requirement does not guarantee admission.

English proficiency may be demonstrated by any of the following methods.

Prior Education

- Completion of a high school diploma, GED, or its equivalent from an accredited U.S. high school or a secondary school in a country where English is the language of instruction (see below).
- A transcript showing completion of a post-secondary degree at an accredited college or university in the United States.
- A transcript showing one of the following from an accredited college or university in the United States or a recognized college or university in a country on the list of countries of English instruction. An official NACES-approved transcript evaluation must accompany the transcript for any international institution that is not an accredited U.S. college or university to qualify for consideration.
 - Completion of the equivalent of 12 semester credit hours or 18 quarter credit hours of college-level credit with a Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) of 2.0 or higher (or equivalent).
 - Completion of a college-level writing/composition course equivalent to CM107  College Composition I or CM220  College Composition II with a grade of "C-" or higher.
- A transcript showing a credit recommendation for a college-level writing/composition course or external exam equivalent to CM107 or CM220 from an approved testing agency (College Board or DSST) or articulation partner.
