informal action or disciplinary sanctions:

If the violation falls within one of the categories of conduct listed below, you may be subject to informal actions. If the violation falls within one of the categories of conduct listed below, you may also be subject to disciplinary sanctions.

The following actions constitute conduct for which you may be subject to informal action or disciplinary sanctions:

1. Dishonesty in connection with any University activity. The expectation to uphold the standards of academic integrity and honesty is a responsibility of every member of the University community. Cheating, plagiarism, or knowingly furnishing false information to the University are examples of dishonesty. Accordingly, the following behaviors will be considered violations of these standards and are subject to disciplinary action as set forth in these procedures.
   a. Cheating: You are expected to adhere to the guidelines provided by instructors for academic work so that you do not gain an unfair advantage. Using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, study aids, notes, or any other device in any academic exercise will not be tolerated. Unauthorized materials may include anything that or anyone who gives assistance that has not been approved by the instructor in advance. Cheating includes directly or indirectly sharing your work by posting it to a third-party website.
   b. Plagiarism:
      i. Using another person’s words, ideas, results, or images without giving appropriate credit to that person; giving the impression that it is your own work.
      ii. Copying work, written text, or images from another student, the Internet, or any document without giving due credit to the source of the information.
      iii. Purchasing or contracting another person or company to complete coursework, including obtaining a paper from the Internet, from a term paper company, or from another student, and submitting it as your original work.
   c. Fabrication: Intentional and/or unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in any academic exercise. This includes but is not limited to:
      i. The changing and/or manipulation of research data, results, processes, or research record
      ii. The omission of results from the research record
      iii. The alteration and resubmission of a graded academic exercise, except as permitted by the Coursework Resubmission Policy (p. 2).
   d. Multiple Submissions: The submission of substantial portions of the same academic work for credit more than once without authorization from the instructor as described in the Coursework Resubmission Policy (p. 2).
   e. Collusion: Intentionally or knowingly helping or attempting to help another to violate any regulation governing the standards of academic integrity described in these regulations. You may only collaborate on academic work within the limits prescribed by the instructor.

2. Theft of, attempted theft of, unauthorized use or possession of, unauthorized exertion of control over, or causing damage to property of any kind belonging to the University, a member of the University community, an onsite visitor, or a person or agency participating in a University activity.

3. Any conduct that substantially threatens or interferes with the maintenance of appropriate order and discipline in the operation of the University, or any conduct on University property or in connection with a University activity that invades the rights of others. Examples include, but are not limited to:
   • Inappropriate or profane behavior that causes a disruption of teaching, research, administration, disciplinary proceedings, or other Purdue Global activities
   • The use of tobacco/vaping/related products in University buildings, and eating or drinking in any location other than designated areas
   • Bringing animals on to Purdue Global property or University-authorized locations unless they are assisting the physically impaired or are being used during approved academic activities
   • Bringing children into teaching areas at University-authorized locations
   • Failure to comply with all emergency evacuation procedures, disregarding safety practices, tampering with fire protection equipment, or violation of any other health and safety rules or regulations
   • Disruptive use of mobile phones or other electronic devices; all personal electronic devices must be in the "off" position during academic activity

4. Failure to conduct yourself in a professional manner with University staff and faculty, peers, or clients in an institutional, clinical, externship, or lab setting.

5. Failure to comply with directions of University officials acting in the performance of their duties including, but not limited to, failing to present identification upon request of University officials acting in their official capacity of their position.

6. Violation of any Purdue Global regulations. This includes, for example, regulations contained in official University publications or announced as administrative policy for a University official or other person authorized by the Chancellor of the University.

7. Physical abuse of any person or conduct that threatens or endangers the health or safety of any other person, whether or not such conduct occurs on University property. For information about the Sexual Misconduct Policy, please refer to the Additional References (https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/additional-reference/) section of the Catalog.

8. Unauthorized entry or access to, or unauthorized use or occupancy of, any University property including, without limitation, lands, buildings, structures, telecommunications, computer or data processing equipment, programs, systems, software, or other facilities or services connected with a University activity. See Responsible Use of University Technology (p. 2) for further details on prohibited activities with respect to University technology.

9. The use, possession, sale, manufacturing, or distribution of alcohol, illegal drugs, or narcotic or prescription drugs, except as expressly permitted by law. Intentionally or recklessly inhaling or ingesting any University Violence Prevention

To foster an atmosphere that promotes Purdue Global’s educational mission, the University is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy environment free of violence and threats of violence at all places where members of the University community are engaged in University-sponsored activities.

Any behavior that is threatening, harassing, intimidating, or in any way dangerous or violent is strictly prohibited, will not be tolerated, and will result in swift remedial action. Any individual who is found to have engaged in such behavior will be subject to discipline, expulsion from Purdue Global, and/or referral to law enforcement authorities.

No individual will be subject to retaliation for making a good-faith report of real or perceived violence or threats of violence. All such behavior must be immediately reported to local law enforcement services and the Office of Student Relations via studentrelations@purdueglobal.edu.

Coursework Resubmission Policy

There are three approved means for reusing your academic work: resubmit, repurpose, and rework. See the definitions and conditions for each type of reuse below.

When resubmitting or repurposing an assignment, you must notify the instructor prior to submission and cite the original date of submission on the work itself. It is your responsibility to ensure that the previously submitted course materials meet current course requirements.

Citation Example: This assignment was originally submitted on [Give the date] for [Give the course and the instructor].

Definitions

Resubmit: You can only resubmit a paper when you retake a course after a failed attempt in the same Purdue Global traditional or module course. Resubmission is allowed without penalty and is not considered self-plagiarism. You must notify the instructor prior to submission and cite the original date of submission on the work itself.

Repurpose: You repurpose academic coursework when you submit parts of a previously submitted assignment for work in a subsequent traditional or module course belonging to a different class. Repurposing is allowed only with prior permission from the instructor, proper self-citations, and substantial revisions.

Rework in Module Courses: You rework an assignment when you improve an unsuccessful competency assessment in a module course based on feedback from the instructor and resubmit the assignment to attempt a passing grade in the same attempt at that module. You can also rework ideas when you carry over an idea or part of an assignment from module course to module course in the same class as permitted by the instructions of a module course. Reworking is allowed and no prior instructor notification is required. This applies to current module courses only.

See the Purdue Global Student Coursework Resubmission, Repurposing, and Reworking Policy Resource (https://kuportal-a.akamaihd.net/ascmedia/wc/resubmissionpolicyresource.pdf) for additional information.

The Coursework Resubmission Policy is not applicable to Concord Law School students; see Student Conduct (https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/concord-law-school/policy-information/student-services/student-conduct/) for rules governing coursework resubmission for Concord students.

Responsible Use of University Technology

Purdue Global values freedom of expression and encourages diverse viewpoints endemic to an academic institution. At the same time, the University expects you to act in a responsible, ethical, and legal manner when using the University’s school facilities, equipment, websites, and systems (“Sites”). Sites include, but are not limited to, the online classroom, online seminars, virtual campus, discussion boards, and internal email system.

You are prohibited from circumventing any security measure of Purdue Global or another entity and intentionally using, distributing, or creating viruses, worms, malicious software, or keylogging techniques.

To facilitate social networking and to establish a sense of community, some Purdue Global Sites allow you to post your own content or communicate with others. When you use any Sites to post or transmit text, video, audio, or other material (“User Content”) for social networking purposes, you agree to accept sole responsibility for your User Content.

Purdue Global Sites are intended to be used for business and educational purposes only. You must agree that your User Content, which includes information posted or communicated that is not considered an educational record under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) (https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/policy-information/student-information-services/ferpa/), may not:

1. Infringe on the intellectual property, trade secret, privacy, or publicity rights of others or contain copyright-protected material without the written permission of the copyright owner
2. Contain any material that conflicts with any article of the Student Bill of Rights (https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/policy-information/student-information-services/student-bill-rights/) and/or Code of Student Conduct (p. 1)
3. Be posted in a false name or the name of another person, or include impersonations of any person, except where such impersonations are obvious and are included exclusively for the purpose of parody
4. Include illegal material or encourage, solicit, or glorify illegal activity
5. Contain false statements or misrepresentations
6. Include commercial advertisements or solicitations, except if the University has specifically authorized their inclusion
7. Include material that is otherwise objectionable to the University

The University does not have control over and cannot censor all User Content students submit to its Sites or prevent students from uploading or adding inappropriate User Content to its Sites. The University does, however, monitor its Sites to the best of its ability to ensure that students do not submit, upload, add, or exchange any inappropriate User Content to or on its Sites.

If you see or hear inappropriate User Content on Purdue Global Sites, you should promptly report it pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Problem Resolution and Grievance Procedures (https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/policy-information/student-information-services/problem-resolution-grievance-procedures/) section.

All Purdue Global Sites and computer equipment, email accounts, facsimile equipment, Internet access, instant messaging, voicemail, and supplies, if provided, are done so exclusively to assist you in your educational activities. You should not expect that computer files, email, voicemail, Internet bookmarks, or any of your User Content are confidential or private, and, therefore, should have no expectation of privacy whatsoever related to your usage of these Sites, to the extent that the information is not considered an educational record under FERPA.

Even when content, such as a message or file, is erased, it may still be possible to recover the message or file. Therefore, the University cannot ensure the privacy of content that is not considered an educational record. Messages sent through the University’s email or instant messaging accounts and Purdue Global-owned facsimile equipment, the contents of the hard drives of any computer that is the property of the University, any User Content, and any voicemail messages saved on telephones that are the property of the University may be used in administrative, judicial, or other proceedings such as those resulting from student grievances, even where the information is considered an educational record.

In addition, the University licenses software to support its educational processes. Without express written consent of the University, you are not permitted to copy, remove, alter, or install software on any University equipment. By using the University’s computer equipment, software, and communication devices, you knowingly and voluntarily consent to your use of these systems being monitored and acknowledge the University’s right to conduct such monitoring.

Violations of the Code of Student Conduct

General

You are expected to conduct yourself as a committed member of the Purdue Global academic community, in compliance with both the spirit and letter of the rights and regulations of the institution. When each member of our community adheres to this commitment, the spirit of academic inquiry and discovery is best preserved for each and all.

A violation of the Code of Student Conduct (p. 1) may result in one or more sanctions including, but not limited to:

- Verbal warning
- Written warning
- Grade reduction
- Suspension
- Dismissal

The University’s administration will determine the action(s) to be taken based on the severity of the infraction and your prior disciplinary record.

General Code of Student Conduct Violation Procedures

Procedure for Filing General Code of Student Conduct Complaints

Any individual from inside or outside the University community may file a complaint against a student suspected of violating the Code of Student Conduct. The complaint should be submitted to the appropriate Dean or designee. Complaints should be submitted as soon as possible after the event takes place.

Procedure for Investigation of General Code of Student Conduct Complaints

If you are the subject of an alleged Code of Student Conduct violation, the appropriate Dean/designee will investigate the complaint. You will receive notice of the allegation and will be able to make a statement in response. If you fail or refuse to respond, the Dean/designee may, after conducting any investigation deemed necessary, dismiss the allegation or impose a disciplinary sanction. The Dean/designee may also request assistance from other University officials in review of an allegation.

After obtaining all relevant information and completing the investigation, the Dean/designee will make the determination as to whether it is more likely than not that you are responsible for the alleged violation(s). Within 5 University business days following the conclusion of the investigation, you will be notified in writing of any disciplinary sanctions or other actions that may result from the investigation.

The University reserves the right to take immediate disciplinary action if:

1. You have multiple or repeated violations, or
2. Your actions pose a threat to the safety, security, or well-being of members or guests of the University community, University property, or the ability of the University to maintain normal operations and carry on its programs, services, and activities free of disruption.

Appeal of Code of Student Conduct Disciplinary Sanction

All general code of conduct violation appeals are to be directed to Student Relations. After discussing your Code of Conduct violation with the dean, you may appeal to the Office of Student Relations. The appeal must include the appropriate form, additional evidence as appropriate, and sufficient information to permit fact-finding and investigation. The appeal must be submitted within 10 business days of receiving notification of the disciplinary action. You will be notified in writing of Student Relations’ decision. Student Relations’ decision is final.

Dishonesty

Violations involving academic dishonesty may result in the following sanctions, though this order may not be adhered to, depending on the circumstances of the infraction:

- First offense: Failure of the assignment in which the action occurred
- Second offense: Failure of the class in which the action occurred
- Third offense: Suspension or permanent dismissal from the University

The University’s administration will determine the action(s) to be taken based on the severity of the infraction and your prior disciplinary record.
All charges are recorded in Purdue Global’s database and remain there permanently. All offenses you accumulate while completing a program will be carried over to any subsequent program, if and when you reenroll.

Academic Dishonesty Violation Procedures

Procedures for processing an allegation of academic dishonesty are as follows:

1. The instructor notifies you of any charge of academic dishonesty brought against you.
2. The charge is submitted in writing by the instructor to the Office of the Provost.
3. The Office of the Provost sends you a copy of the Code of Student Conduct (p. 1) and notification of the charge.
4. The Office of the Provost, after a full review, sends you and the instructor notification of the findings with regard to the subject charge.
5. The Office of the Provost maintains a database of academic dishonesty charges.
6. Please see the University’s Academic Appeals Policy (https://catalog.purdueglobal.edu/policy-information/student-information-services/appeals-policy/) for information on how to appeal a charge of academic dishonesty.
