

ARTS AND SCIENCES (AS)

AS495: College of Social and Behavioral Sciences Internship

This course provides students in the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences' bachelor of science programs with practical experience in a professional field. It provides an opportunity to combine academic theory with new, career-related experience. At least 15 hours per week must be devoted to tasks that apply theory and academic content in a professional setting for a minimum of 150 out-of-class hours. Tasks must be delineated in the Learning Contract, which demonstrates an advanced application of academic theory in the workplace.

Quarter Credit Hours: 6 | Prerequisite: Application approval and permission from the Department Chair
