LEGAL STUDIES (LS)

LS100: Introduction to the Law and Legal Profession
This course examines the foundation, organization, and structure of the American legal system with an emphasis on the careers available in the legal profession through an exploration of the roles and responsibilities in the legal field. You will learn the professional and ethical practices needed to succeed as a legal support professional or as a legal specialist.
Quarter Credit Hours: 5 | Prerequisite: None

LS185: Introduction to American Jurisprudence
It is important for members of the legal support team to have a strong foundation in the fundamental rules, court cases, concepts, and trends of key subjects in American law. This course provides an American legal background covering civil and common law traditions, the legal profession, constitutional law, and a survey of specific areas of law. Upon successful completion of this course you will have a solid understanding of the American legal system.
Quarter Credit Hours: 5 | Prerequisite: LS100

LS204: Legal Research and Writing
Two of the most basic tasks performed by a legal support team member are legal research and written analysis - finding the law, analyzing the component parts of written opinions, and applying the reasoning of relevant legal authorities to a factual situation. Upon successful completion of this course you will have gained specialized skills in the area of legal research and the ability to analyze and synthesize legal authority. Additionally, you will be able to draft correspondence and memoranda commonly used in the practice of law.
Quarter Credit Hours: 5 | Prerequisite: CM220

LS244: Advanced Legal Research and Writing
This course focuses on researching legal issues and drafting legal documents using the results of student research. Emphasis will be placed on briefing and analyzing court opinions and other legal sources, applying the legal rationale to a given factual situation, and drafting documents commonly used in legal practice. This course also teaches you how to present the results of research in a professional manner.
Quarter Credit Hours: 5 | Prerequisite: LS204

LS298: Associate of Applied Science in Legal Support and Services Capstone
This course is designed as the culminating experience of the Associate of Applied Science in Legal Support and Services.
